

By the time Mama arrived, the excitement was over. William, the zebra lady, and the wig had gone home. Rosie hugged Mama and said, "You're early!" "Was it as good as the movies?" Mama asked her. "It was even better!" said Rosie. "I made tips!" she said, pulling quarters and nickels and dimes out of her pocket. "Rosie saved the day," said Grandma, laughing. She kissed Rosie goodbye.

