Two Moon Princess

Written by Carmen Ferreiro-Estéban

To Andrea, the life of a princess is not a dream; it's tedious and stifling. But the certainties of her life, both good and bad, are thrown into chaos when she accidentally travels from a cave on a forbidden beach in her family's kingdom to an alternative world—the warm and carefree life of southern California. Then a careless visit to the cave results in terrible consequences: a brewing war between kingdoms, her sister's love for the wrong man, Andrea's own conflicted feelings for an enemy leader, and dark family secrets exposed. Andrea needs to act to resolve problems which she helped to create, and she faces many difficult choices, torn between duty and desire on so many levels.

Young readers will enjoy this adventuresome, coming-of-age story of a princess in a medieval kingdom who wants to break free of her royal responsibilities to become a knight, against the wishes of her parents, only to find that she must choose between duty and desire. TWO MOON PRINCESS combines traditional elements of the fantasy genre with unique twists and a look at our culture through the eyes of a stranger.

Carmen Ferreiro-Estéban was born in Lugo, Northern Spain, and grew up among the misty mountains of Galicia. While still in college, she moved to the highlands of Castilla—the land of the castles—in central Spain, where she finished her Ph.D. in Biology. For the next ten years, she worked as a researcher both in Madrid and at the University of California at Davis. In 1993, she moved to Pennsylvania, taking classes from the Institute of Children's Literature and attending conferences and workshops in the field of children's literature. Carmen currently resides with her family in Doylestown, Pennsylvania, where she works as a freelance Science Writer/Translator, and teaches Spanish in a private high school; Two Moon Princess is her first young adult novel.
